

ENGIV

2019 Annual Conference
European Network on Gender and Violence

July 17th-19th

Social Science Research Institute on Gender Issues
Protestant University of Applied Sciences Freiburg
Bugginger Straße 38 - 79114 Freiburg i. Br., Germany

- preliminary programm - minor modifications expected -

FIVE
Forschungs- und
Innovationsverbund
an der Evangelischen
Hochschule Freiburg e.V.

Wednesday - July, 17th

Early Career Researchers' Meeting

08:30 – 9:00	Registration for Early Career Participants
09:00-10:30	Brodersen , TU Berlin, Germany 'Prevention' of the self as 'preservation' of the self – The case of non-offending pedophiles Dheensa , U Bristol, UK Researching morally reprehensible behavior: tensions and role conflict
10:30-10:45	Coffee break
10:45-12:15	Nagel , EH Freiburg, Germany Sexual violence in institutional care and the experiences in families – protective resources and/or risk factors? Klencakova , Queen's U Belfast, UK The Impact of Intimate Partner Violence on Teenage Women's Educational
12:15-13:15	Lunch
13:15-15:30	Körner , HU Berlin, Germany Fear, danger, oppression. Reflections on the meaning of disparagement and prejudices in the research process on sex work Carroll , U Uppsala, Sweden Sexual Violence and Gender Equality in Sweden Squire , U Bristol, UK The Empire Strikes Back: An exploration of the erosion of women's influence within post-industrial States across Europe
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-17:30	Lujan , U Turku, Finland Policy and legislation on extreme forms of violence against women in the EU. Case study: Femi(ni)cide in Germany Reinboldt , U Stirling, UK 'He was always calling me names' – Indexing coercive controlling tactics in narrative as a breach of expectations
17:30-17:45	Closing remarks and future planning

Wednesday – July, 17th

Main Conference

The first evening and the open talk is not taking place at the conference location. The location will be announced soon.

18:00 Registration at the location of dinner

18:30 Opening Talk – Danneskiold-Samsøe & Mørck, University College Copenhagen / Roskilde University, Denmark: Understanding honour-based social control

19:00 Dinner (free)

Thursday, 18th July

08:30 – 9:00 Registration at Protestant University of Applied Sciences, Bugginger Straße 38

09:00 – 9:30 Welcomes by University, Department & European Network

Plenary Sessions: Highlights from the host country

9:30 – 10:30 Schröttle & Meshkova (Germany):
Ratification of the Istanbul Convention and the need for monitoring through systematic long-term research. / Prevention and intervention in Sexual Harassment at the workplace.

Grafe (Germany):
“Listening to voices of professionals in intervention against violence”

10:30 – 11:00 Coffee break

11:00 – 12:30 Plenary Sessions: Highlights from the host country

Zillig (Germany):
“The transgenerational transfer of trauma as an unavoidable fact? A reconstruction of biographical paths out of violent and traumatic experiences”

Gahleitner(Germany):
“Moments relevant to change in coping with complex experiences of violence as perceived from a gender-differentiating perspective”

Busche & Täubrich (Germany):
“Sexualized violence against boys* as a topic of prevention – (Special) Knowledge from the fields of boys* work, prevention work against sexualized violence, sexual education and queer education”

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch

Poster Reception

- Panel Options in the afternoon -

Thursday, 18th July (continued)

Parallel Panel Discussions

13:30-14:30

Panel 1: Conceptualizing gender and violence

Buchwald (Germany): Always simply the perpetrator – or is there another truth?

Gómez-Casillas & Permanyer (Spain): “‘Nordic paradox’ or ‘illusion’ of higher rates of intimate partner violence? An assessment of the European Union women victimisation survey’s results”

Hall & Hearn (UK): Physical violence and online violence/abuse: concepts, terminologies and comparison

Panel 2: Femicide research and politics

Naudi & Schröttle (European Observatory of Femicide): Data Collection and Prevention

Mobayed (Germany): Lost in the Transnational: A Global Archaeology of Femicide/Feminicide

Shayowitz (Israel): Intimate Femicide and Femicide-Suicide in Israel: The Role of Migration

14:30-15:00

Coffee break

15:00-16:45

Panel 3: International perspectives on social change

Bates: Male victims of honour-based violence: Who does what to whom and why?

Toffanin: Feminist thoughts and the development of VAW policies in Italy

Üstünel (Turkey): Change towards Equal and Safe Relationships: Dating Violence Prevention in a Sample of Turkish College Students

Holubová (Slovakia): Threatening women’s lives by inadequate and unsustainable specialised support services for violence survivors

Panel 4: Survivors and social context

Naudi et al. (Malta): Bystander intervention to sexual harassment

Moreton (UK): Supporting victims of same-sex domestic violence and abuse: them and us?

Dackweiler, Schäfer, Merkle & Peters (Germany): Elderly Intimate Partner violence in rural areas

Enright Bath (UK): Surviving Family Courts: DA survivor’s experiences

17:00

Adjourn, leave for city reception

18:00

Reception, City of Freiburg, Alte Gerichtslaube

Friday, 19th July 2019

Parallel Panel Discussions

09:00 – 10:45

Panel 5: Youth

Rieske (Germany): Masculinity as an ambivalent resource for the disclosure of sexual abuse against boys

Roca-Cortes, da Cruz & Codina-Mata (Spain): A male chauvinist violence prevention program for 6-11 year-old pupils: Methods and outcomes

Henschel (Germany): „It seemed like I was dead all the years and suddenly I was ALIVE“ – women's shelter children and their way into life

Beltrán (Spain): Adolescents and Gender based Violence in Spain

Panel 6: Disclosure decisions, third-party responses, and survivor experiences of provision

Bates, Allnock & Hester (UK): Young rape victims in England: Why do and don't they report to police, and what do they want from the criminal justice system?

Brooks-Hay (UK): Understanding why rape victim-survivors report to the police

Thiara & Roy (UK): “Sexual Violence in the Lives of Minoritised Women: Silencing Processes, Disclosure and Responses”

Nadia Khelaifat (UK): Seen but seldom heard: The healthcare experiences and needs of migrant women affected by domestic violence

10:45 - 11:15

Coffee break

11:15 – 13:00

Panel 7: Legislation, policy and justice

Hester et al. (UK): Justice Inequality and Gender Based Violence

Yüksel-Kaptanoğlu & Dayan (Turkey): Assessment of National Legislation of Turkey Over International Norms: Gender-Based Violence Against Women

Villacampa & Salat (Spain): Stalking. What do victims and professionals think about the legal treatment offered in Spain?

Davidge & Magnusson (UK): Economics of abuse: Survivors experiences

Panel 8: Media representation /Campaigns

Magaraggia U Milano-Bicocca (Italy): Ladies' Violence is exciting, gentlemen's violence is deadly: the (ab)uses of violence in advertising

Magallón (Spain): Cybercampaigns: the instrument for fighting about gender violence by women peacebuilding

Dubé (Canada): Media and Sexual Violence Committed by Male Athletes

Pilinkaite (Lithuania): Societal attitudes about sexual harassment in Lithuania: Moving from revelations to victim blaming

13:00-14:00

Lunch

Friday, 19th July (continued)

Parallel Panel Discussions

14:00-16:00

Panel 9: Providing services

Gloor & Meier (Switzerland): Broader access to victim services with online counselling?! Insights of an evaluation in Switzerland

Neale (UK): Women in Abusive Relationships and Professionals' Responses: Valued Support, or Collusion with Perpetrators?

Stewart (UK): Do current approaches to child protection social work re-victimise women with violent partners?

Potkanski-Palka (Austria): „There Was No Love: Forced Marriage and Gender-Based Violence in Austria“: – A Qualitative Study Based on in-Depth Interviews with Victims and Experts

Nägele & Kotlenga (Germany) Needs assessments and stocktaking of help systems for victims of gender based violence as planning tools for social policy: methodological reflections.

Panel 10: Interventions with perpetrators

Oddone (France): Men playing (three times) the victim: of their wives, of justice, of feminism. How perpetrators' narratives contribute to analyse domestic violence abuse as a form of political violence against women

Firat (Turkey): Evaluation of Social Work Interventions for Men Who Committed Violence against Women in Ankara/Turkey

Morgan et al (UK): The REPROVIDE intervention: is a randomised controlled trial testing the effectiveness of domestic violence perpetrator programs, acceptable to non-mandated perpetrators and their (ex)partners?

Szegö (Hungary): Ways towards and against violence in life histories of male inmates

WORK WITH PERPETRATORS GROUP

16:15-16:45

Award: Best Poster
Concluding remarks

17:00- 18:00

Workshop:
Needs assessments and stocktaking of help systems for victims of gender based violence as planning tools for social policy: methodological reflections